SECTION 1: PURPOSE OF THE ADMINISTRATION GUIDE

This manual sets out the procedures that need to be adopted by the participating employers for SALT Employee Benefits to administer the National Bargaining Council. It is intended to assist personnel who perform administrative and other functions on behalf of the employer and to maintain uniformity of procedures. SALT Employee Benefits administers the National Bargaining Council.

While this guide is intended to cover every eventuality, please contact SALT Employee Benefits to discuss any aspect on which you would like greater clarity.

SECTION 3: Monthly Administrative Tasks

3.1 Eligibility for Participation

As you are aware, the National Bargaining Council for the Private Security Sector (“NBCPSS”) was registered with the Department of Labour on the 21st of June 2018. It resulted in the adoption of its Constitution, with reference number LR2/6/6/164 which formally allowed all relevant stakeholder, labour and employer organizations to commence with the mammoth task to regulate the terms and conditions of employees and to ensure much-needed compliance regulations within the sector. The Levies Collective Agreement was signed on the 20th of January 2020. The purpose is to ensure that all employees who receive the benefits of the Council contribute towards its costs. The implementation of the levies was effective from the 1st of March 2020.

3.1.2 Which employers are eligible for participation?

Every employer who is engaged in the industry as defined in the certificate of registration of the Council must pay a monthly levy to the Council.

3.1.3 Which employees are eligible for participation?

There are two categories of eligible employees:

- Security officers not working less than 24 hours including non – standard employees working as security officers, learners, independent contractors and fixed-term contract employees and other employees:
 - Artisan
 - Clerical Assistant
 - Clerk
 - Driver
 - General Worker
 - Handyman

- Categories of employees not defined in clause above, who fall within the registered scope of the Council, shall contribute a levy. These are the Basic Condition of Employment Act (BCEA) employees (office admin staff)

3.2 What does the law say?

- Payment of Levies must be made no later than the 10th day of the month following the month for which the deduction was made (e.g. February levies are payable by the 10th of March).
- The levy schedule containing membership data and corresponding levies must be forwarded to SALT Employee Benefits by no later than the 7TH of the month, following the month, for which the deduction was made. The schedule must be forwarded via email to levies@nbcps.org.za
- Non-payment of levies or failure to pay by the 20th of the following month results in employees being ineligible to undergo a fair dispute resolution, conciliation or arbitration process.
- Non –payment of levies attracts interest as determined in terms of the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act 55 of 1975 as amended, calculated upon the unpaid amount of the levy from the date that the levy becomes due.

3.3 What are the Monthly Levies Payable

There are two categories of Levies which are calculated as follows:

Guards, supervisors etc	R7 Employee R7 Employer
Basic Condition of Employment Act (BCEA) E.g. Admin Staff/Extended Bargaining Unit	R2 Employee R2 Employer

*Council Levies are exempt from Vat

3.4 Contributions during the absence of work

Maternity

Two categories apply:

A: Paid maternity

As per the main collective agreement if an employee qualifies for paid maternity benefits – the employer and the employee shall be required to contribute the levies during the maternity leave.

B: Unpaid maternity

If the employee does not qualify for paid maternity benefits according to the rules as stipulated in the main collective agreement the employee and employer contribution shall be paid. Once the employee returns from maternity leave the employer may recover the employees part of the contribution.

Sick Leave or Injury on Duty

Workman compensation pays 75% of the employees normal salary up to three months; therefore, the employee and employer contribution must continue as is for the period.

If the employee is on unpaid leave for any reason – The risk contribution for the PSSPF fund is still payable to the fund, and therefore the employee remains an employee and levies are payable. Upon return, the contribution of the employee may be recovered by the employer.

3.5 How to complete monthly schedule

- The prescribed levy schedule (MS Excel format) containing membership data and corresponding levies must be forwarded to SALT Employee Benefits by no later than the 7TH of the month, following the month, for which the deduction was made. The schedule must be forwarded via email to levies@nbcps.org.za
- The schedules must reflect all new employees and all terminations for the month.
- Employers need to ensure that the data schedules submitted matches the deposit made in respect of that schedule.
